A little about us.

Suzart is a non-profit, charitable musical theatre company specializing in affordable entertainment for the whole family. This means that we strive for affordability for our audience by providing high value for the price of admission, but also high value for our members.

We produce three to seven shows each year, focusing on engaging the whole family. We provide opportunities for both youth and adults to shine on and off-stage. This upcoming season includes Mary Poppin's Jr., Elf the Musical, Cabaret, and Seussical.

Our organization is transforming and looking for leadership that will carry us into the future!
